Rights for the AR(t)IBMCP Residency Program

All property rights as well as all other rights not specifically covered below remain with the artist.

The AR(t)IBMCP Residency Program, as well as the institutions and companies involved (Instituto de Biología Molecular y Celular de Plantas, Fundación Española para la Ciencia y la Tecnología, y Centre del Carme de Cultura Contemporànea), wish to make the results of this call accessible to the public, through any dissemination support. They are also authorized to use the results for their own non-commercial purposes. All documentation and promotional material will be used in connection with the AR(t)IBMCP Residency only.

The institutions and companies involved in the AR(t)IBMCP Residency Program reserve the right to determine the actual extent, timing and layout/editing of publications and/or documentaries related to the results of this call, but they cannot be charged with any duty to produce publications and/or documentaries.

Regarding the on-line dissemination of the project in art repositories of the institutions involved; for this purpose, the institutions reserve the non-exclusive, irrevocable and royalty-free right, irrespective of time and place. In publications, they undertake to include in all cases the artist's name, work title and its link to the AR(t)IBMCP Residency Program.

The entrant hereby declares that he/she/they is legally authorized to convey such rights to the extent stipulated above, that he/she/they has obtained any and all necessary consent from third parties as called for by regulations governing copyright, personal property rights or other such legal provisions, and that he/she is prepared to provide proof of such at any time if requested by the AR(t)IBMCP Residency Program.

The entrant will not take any action (especially the conveyance of rights to third parties) which is likely to affect the rights granted to AR(t)IBMCP Residency Program.

I have read the information about the AR(t)IBMCP Residency Program rights and submission conditions and agree to it.
